

Is Jesus been anywhere? Can you find managers, shepherds, angels? Where are the imms & the cares with beasts? Who hears, "Sleep to God," & "Peace on Earth?"

Is this just stuff of olden times, of ages gone?

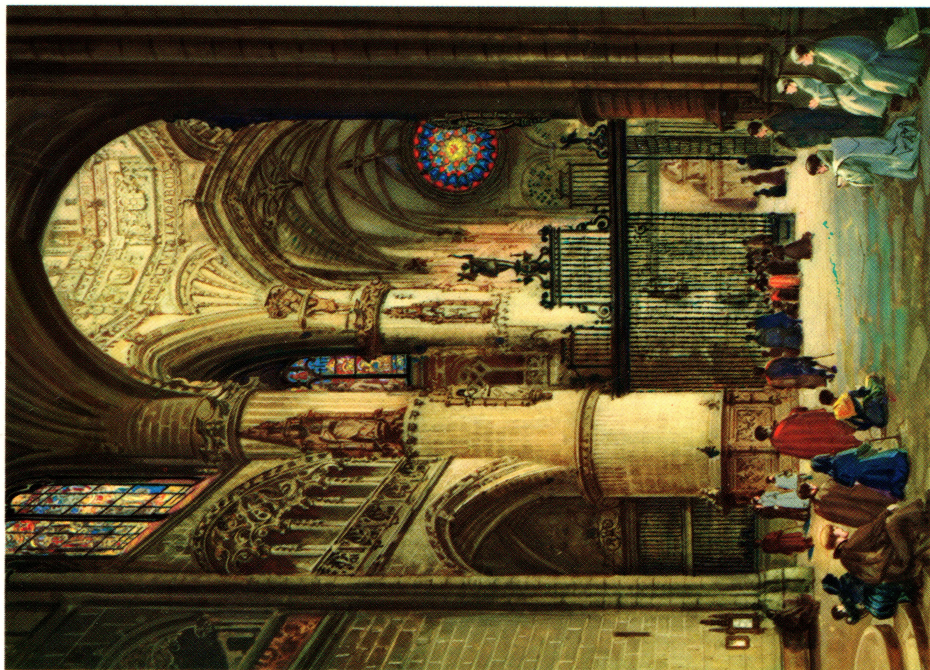

Maybe not. Maybe Christ is born again & over again. Maybe he's just hard to find, as then. Does he hide in cities instead of fields? Do his parents bear other names? Does the manager have a street address?

Picture angels in suits or workshirts' jaws. Picture wise-men as lawyers, doctors, dentists. Picture shepherds as neighbors who read out, wipe a tear, tell a joke, serve a meal, ease a pain. — Picture yourself.

2000 years ago, they looked hard & found him in the most surprising places. Maybe that's still true today.
